1 (At 10:14:44 a.m.)

2 THE CLERK: Okay. This is adversary proceeding
3 15-01124. This is Smith, et al v. Anketell. This is closing
4 arguments.

5 Will the parties please state their names for the 6 record?

7 MR. SMITH: Tim Smith, pro se plaintiff. I'm sorry.
8 Tim Smith, pro se plaintiff.

9 MS. DIPIRO: Theresa DiPiro, pro se plaintiff.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. REGAN: Good morning, Your Honor. John Regan
12 representing the defendant Amian -- Damian Anketell, who is 13 with me.

14 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, everyone.
15 Okay. All right. So we're here for closing arguments. Let's 16 see. And did we discuss time last time, how much time you'll 17 have for this?

18 MS. DIPIRO: I don't believe we did. Ours is very 19 short.

20 THE COURT: Okay. All right. And the way I normally 21 would do this, I'm pretty sure we talked about this, is the 22 burden is on the plaintiffs, so the burden is on you. And so I
23 would allow you to go first and last. All right. So I'll 24 allow you to make your arguments. I'll allow you to make your 25 arguments as to what you say the evidence has shown and then

1 we'll allow Mr. Anketell to make his closing argument and then
2 I'll give you a very brief period to respond. Okay. So just 3 another five minutes or something if you want to say something
4 in response to what you heard him say or you may choose not to.

5 Okay. So do you think maybe 20 minutes will be 6 enough for you to make your closing argument?

7 MR. SMITH: Yes.

8 THE COURT: You think that's enough?

9 MR. SMITH: Definitely.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So I'm going to give 11 you 20 minutes to get started. I will give Mr. Anketell and 12 his counsel 25 minutes, and then you'll have five more minutes,
13 okay? So we'll have a fair spread of time. Okay. Any other
14 questions or preliminaries?

15 MR. REGAN: No questions, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 MR. SMITH: No questions, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. So let's get started. Mary
19 is going to time it.

20 Mary, do you have it set up on the -- yeah. So we 21 have a light system and when that starts to blink red, it means
22 your time is up.

23 Is there a warning, Mary, before that, do you know?
24 Is there a yellow? All right. Don't worry about it. I'll 25 keep an eye on the time.

1 MR. SMITH: We won't get close to it, I don't think.

2 THE COURT: It will -- oh, you'll be surprised.

3 Okay. So you'll be able to tell how much time you have left
4 from there. Okay?

5 MR. SMITH: Thank you. I also want to apologize for 6 being late today.

7 THE COURT: I understand.

8 MR. SMITH: I do apologize.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Well, fortunately, I'm here so --
10 and didn't have things backed up until this afternoon, so okay.
11 So let's get started then.

12 MR. SMITH: Okay. So I think I would just start by 13 saying that --

14 THE COURT: I think you'd better get that microphone.
15 Would you be uncomfortable arguing from there, from the podium?

16 MR. SMITH: No, that's fine.

17 THE COURT: You're going to be happier because that 18 microphone is higher and it -- it's going to --

19 MR. SMITH: There wouldn't be water; that's 20 important.

21 THE COURT: There is water, isn't there?

22 MR. SMITH: That's okay. I'll survive.

23 THE COURT: We have water. We'll find water. I
24 know. Okay. We'll get him some water.

25 MR. SMITH: Okay.

1 THE COURT: That's great.

2 MR. SMITH: So I think our take-away is that a lot of 3 evidence in these types of cases is circumstantial, not direct.
4 And I think that with that being said, we have a strong line of 5 witnesses that came forward, including ourselves, which would 6 be five witnesses that told precisely the same story. Ours is 7 a different story right there from the beginning. And I think
8 that, you know, to begin with I would say that from our point
9 of view there needs to be some capacity to forgive and 10 understand what happened to us, if there was a sloppy business
11 decision or if things just didn't work out correctly.

12 But, in our view, all of the evidence from the 13 misrepresentations at the initial point of view, they point to 14 a clear and systematic attempt to defraud us from the start.
15 The misrepresentations were many and continued throughout the 16 process. The initial meeting where I took some notes regarding 17 the statements that were made to us and all the way up through 18 the continued misrepresentations talking about the progress of 19 the job and requests for additional funds, none of which turned 20 out to be near the truth. And I think that's the basis of our 21 case is the systematic misrepresentation.

22 And if you look back, like I said, you don't see a
23 business that just steps on a few land mines and had to 24 scramble quickly. There's an absolute insolvency, an insolvent
25 business that was present that have no business being a going

1 concern, and I think the evidence speaks to that rather 2 plainly.

3 THE COURT: Let me ask you this way.

4 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

5 THE COURT: This is the focus for me --

6 MR. SMITH: Okay.

7 THE COURT: -- you know, in deciding this case. You
8 say that the debtors -- I'm sorry. You are the debtors. You
9 say that Mr. Anketell is not entitled to a discharge of your 10 debt under -- without using -- we don't have to go through the 11 statutes that way but --

12 MR. SMITH: Okay.

13 THE COURT: -- you say that he made certain
14 misrepresentations to you.

15 MR. SMITH: Correct.

16 THE COURT: He lied to you in some way.

17 MR. SMITH: That's right.

18 THE COURT: All right. What were the
19 misrepresentations --

20 MR. SMITH: Okay.

21 THE COURT: -- that have been proven?

22 MR. SMITH: Okay.

23 THE COURT: Not ones that you think about now, but 24 ones that were proven at trial.

25 MR. SMITH: Okay.

1 THE COURT: That's what I need to hear about.

2 MR. SMITH: I think that based on the evidence
3 presented proven would be the -- some of the original claims of 4 2.5 million in revenue from this business and the --

5 THE COURT: All right. So number one is he said to 6 you --

7 MR. SMITH: Right.

8 THE COURT: -- what?

9 MR. SMITH: He explained to me that he had done 2.5
10 million dollars of business the prior year and that he had a 11 host of other jobs lined up for the future. And based on the 12 document produced and entered into evidence he had basically no
13 jobs lined up. I believe it was something along the order of 14 approximately $30,000 of jobs lined up. And I believe some of 15 those might have been -- I'm positive they were -- they were 16 actually Chris Lablanc's jobs as well.

17 THE COURT: All right. So number one is that he said
18 two things. He said, "I did 2.5 million dollars of business in 19 the past year and I have jobs lined up."

20 MR. SMITH: Right. Jobs lined up in the future and 21 that was part of -- that compelled us to act. So what was made 22 clear to us -- was presented to us was that if you want us to 23 do the work, you'd better act quickly. We have a busy 24 schedule, a pipeline of jobs and we can squeeze you in. And 25 that definitely -- that put a bit of pressure on us. You know

1 we had some talks about it. I was more on board than my wife
2 and we ended up going forward and due to that representation we 3 went forward with this project.

4 THE COURT: So let's keep making the list of
5 misrepresentations.

6 MR. SMITH: Sure.

7 THE COURT: What else did he say that you say -- and 8 this is what was proven; not what you think now but what was 9 actually proven.

10 MR. SMITH: Right. Okay.

11 THE COURT: What other misrepresentation did he make 12 to you?

13 MR. SMITH: Okay. All right. Another
14 misrepresentation was that Mr. Anketell had done background
15 checks on all of his employees and subcontractors.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. SMITH: And this turned out to be false. That 18 was testified to by Paul Lance and Chris LeBlanc who had not 19 been subject to background checks. That's something they would 20 have to have been contacted for, I believe. And with regard to 21 necessary information and above and beyond that Home Advisory 22 only does backgrounds on the applicant per their website.

23 THE COURT: All right. Now, so you say that he said,
24 "And I do background checks on all my employees," and you say
25 that at the time he said that --

1 MR. SMITH: This was --

2 THE COURT: It was not true?

3 MR. SMITH: It was not true and it helped us -- we
4 have three young girls at home and that -- we weren't home
5 around a lot of the time and we'd be home most likely when they 6 were there, but just in case it was good to know that these 7 people had been vetted.

8 THE COURT: How did that impact you? How were you
9 injured by -- if -- let's assume for the moment that that's 10 what he said.

11 MR. SMITH: Right.

12 THE COURT: And it wasn't true.

13 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

14 THE COURT: How were you injured by that?

15 MR. SMITH: We were injured -- that compelled us. It
16 was one of the reasons we went forward with this entire 17 project. It was especially important to my wife. I thought it 18 was important, too, so in my opinion that speaks to the entire 19 injury of what happened to us, the loss and all that because 20 that helped -- that was a -- a -- one of the primary reasons
21 that we went forward. We liked that attitude, that safety was 22 prime concern.

23 THE COURT: But I'm looking for very specific answer
24 to this now.

25 MR. SMITH: Right.

1 THE COURT: Because the statute is going to require
2 you to have that answer the way it's interpreted. Was there
3 something that happened with an employee that's -- that -- on 4 whom a check was not made that injured you?

5 MR. SMITH: There is not. No, that's not the case.

6 THE COURT: All right. So you have -- it's a more
7 generalized idea you have here that you proceeded with him.
8 You relied on that statement and proceeded with him, but the 9 truth or not of that specific statement didn't matter?

10 MR. SMITH: It mattered in that it was going 11 reason -- it was the primary reason for us to continue and the 12 ultimate injury occurred because of his misrepresentations.
13 Had we known there were misrepresentations, we wouldn't have 14 gone forward. We wouldn't have been injured the way we were.
15 That's how I present that, but --

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 MR. SMITH: You're asking me if there was specific 18 injury from someone who wasn't vetted and the answer to that is 19 no. No --

20 THE COURT: Okay. We can go back --

21 MR. SMITH: -- trouble with --

22 THE COURT: -- and we will. Any other
23 misrepresentations or lies that he -- you say he told you?

24 MR. SMITH: One of them was the fact that the job was 25 moving along quickly and that he needed I believe it was

1 another payment to move forward. And the fact that there were 2 clearly no funds left for the bank accounts, there were no
3 funds left, so there was no way that the job was going
4 anywhere. And I think that was a clear misrepresentation.

5 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Now I'm confused.

6 MR. SMITH: Okay.

7 THE COURT: What was this misrepresentation?

8 MR. SMITH: That the job was going further and faster
9 than he anticipated --

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. SMITH: -- therefore, he needed additional funds
12 in order to keep the ball rolling and further bank accounts.
13 There were no funds at all to keep things going. The job
14 wasn't moving any faster than it had been before and that was 15 quite plain.

16 THE COURT: All right. So you're -- the misstatement 17 is that the job was "moving along more quickly than we 18 anticipated," and you say that -- I didn't ask you this, but 19 you've now added that the -- but that you know that wasn't true
20 because he didn't have sufficient money to --

21 MR. SMITH: To get anything moving. The project had 22 basically stopped.

23 THE COURT: But couldn't it have still been moving
24 along faster than anticipated but -- how does the fact that 25 there wasn't money available for him to continue --

1 MR. SMITH: No.

2 THE COURT: -- establish that it was --

3 MR. SMITH: Right.

4 THE COURT: -- untruthful when he said, "We're moving
5 along faster than expected"?

6 MR. SMITH: I think the answer to that is simply that 7 it's up to them then.

8 THE COURT: I have to write an opinion on this, so I
9 have to nail it down.

10 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

11 THE COURT: You can't tell me --

12 MR. SMITH: I understand.

13 THE COURT: -- I can't write it. I can't find it.

14 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: Go ahead. You can talk to your wife.

16 MR. SMITH: Yeah. I might have my wife actually 17 continue it. She just hasn't been -- if that's possible. I
18 know you don't like the juggling.

19 THE COURT: It's okay.

20 MR. SMITH: Okay.

21 THE COURT: You're just going to have your 20
22 minutes, so --

23 MR. SMITH: Yeah, okay.

24 THE COURT: -- you want to get going.

25 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Sure.

2 MS. DIPIRO: In the month of March, which was well
3 close to the end of the project, which was April 3rd, he told
4 me that he -- his -- the project was moving around -- along 5 faster than expected and that they were going to do -- they 6 were going to finish the project in eight weeks instead of ten.

7 His bank account balance in Ground Up Construction
8 was minimal, so that's one concern. And right after that 9 statement I gave him a significant amount of funds. And it was 10 clear at that time that he was bouncing checks as Paul Lance's
11 check for $7,000 was -- came back with insufficient funds. I
12 wasn't aware of it at the time. So the damage to us is that we 13 proceeded to give him funds in a project that was clearly not 14 going to finish because he didn't have the funds to even pay
15 the framers.

16 THE COURT: All right. So what you're saying is that 17 his making the statement to you what you say was untrue that it 18 was moving along more quickly than expected and that it would 19 be done in eight weeks and not ten was that you wrote him
20 another check?

21 MS. DIPIRO: We -- exactly.

22 THE COURT: How much?

23 MS. DIPIRO: That check was for -- I think it was 24 $11,000.

25 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Any other -- I have

1 three misrepresentations on my pad.

2 MS. DIPIRO: Okay. Yeah.

3 THE COURT: Any others?

4 MS. DIPIRO: He also said during that time in March
5 that his -- Chris LeBlanc was out doing background checks on 6 all his subs and through Chris LeBlanc's testimony he said he 7 never was asked to do background checks on any of the subs nor 8 was he -- nor was a background check on himself done. And I'll 9 go back to when Tim spoke about in the beginning when we first 10 met with him he said that he -- he claimed that he does 11 everything regarding safety and he does background checks on 12 all his employees.

13 THE COURT: All right. So this is a different
14 statement from him.

15 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah, that's different. I just -- yes.
16 Yeah. Okay.

17 THE COURT: That was already said.

18 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

19 THE COURT: So now you're saying that after he 20 started --

21 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah.

22 THE COURT: -- later on --

23 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah.

24 THE COURT: -- he then repeated this -- he used the 25 words that Chris LeBlanc was doing background checks on all the 1 subs.

2 MS. DIPIRO: Yep.

3 THE COURT: And you -- and that was not true?

4 MS. DIPIRO: Correct.

5 THE COURT: And we know that because why, because 6 Mr. LeBlanc said he wasn't doing that?

7 MS. DIPIRO: Because he testified that he never did
8 background checks.

9 THE COURT: All right. And how were you injured
10 by -- let's just assume for the moment that statement was 11 untrue.

12 MS. DIPIRO: Um-hum.

13 THE COURT: And let's assume he said it.

14 MS. DIPIRO: Yep.

15 THE COURT: How are you hurt by that?

16 MS. DIPIRO: Financially.

17 THE COURT: No, I understand that, but how 18 financially?

19 MS. DIPIRO: We gave him additional funds and --

20 THE COURT: So you're back to the $11,000?

21 MS. DIPIRO: The $11,000. At that point it was 22 $77,000 that he maybe spent 28 of it.

23 THE COURT: Well, some of it you gave him before he 24 made that statement.

25 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

1 THE COURT: You can't have --

2 MS. DIPIRO: Yes, yes, $11,000.

3 THE COURT: It can't have been an inducement --

4 MS. DIPIRO: Yep.

5 THE COURT: -- for you to do anything that had 6 already happened.

7 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah, okay, gotcha. No, it was $11,000
8 and that was for -- to continue the work and it was clear
9 within days after that they called -- they stopped the job and 10 they said -- they told -- they told us that they're going to 11 meet with us on Friday.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. DIPIRO: Which was forthright, so --

14 THE COURT: I remember that, too, but -- all right.
15 That's four. Any other false statements that you're relying on 16 in your case?

17 MS. DIPIRO: Oh, yeah. He also when -- in the month
18 of October when we gave our first -- after we gave our first 19 deposit of $38,000 we became wary of Mr. Anketell because he 20 was -- we could not get in touch with him. And my husband
21 contacted him and he said that -- and asked him and I believe 22 that it was while Tim was at work and he asked him if he -- if 23 he can get -- if we can get our deposits back. And he said, "I 24 can't do that," and he also stated that he had started buying
25 materials for the project.

1 And I -- and we found that false in that we spoke
2 to -- we actually have receipts from when he wrote out the 3 check to the architect and that was not in the month of 4 October. It was 23 -- it was Exhibit H. And he also said that
5 he spent money on materials. If you go over his use of funds
6 spreadsheet, which was Exhibit -- trying to find the exhibit
7 number -- Exhibit J, the trial, there were no expenditures of 8 materials in the month of October. So the damage there is that 9 we continued -- we felt like he was already starting a project
10 and we couldn't get our deposits back.

11 THE COURT: So it wasn't that he said, "Well, we have 12 a contract and it's not subject to cancellation" --

13 MS. DIPIRO: He did say that as well. He said,
14 "We're in a contract together."

15 THE COURT: But that was a statement of law, not of 16 fact.

17 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah, that was -- he did state that.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 MS. DIPIRO: He did say --

20 THE COURT: But in addition he said, "But by the way, 21 I don't have -- I don't have the $38,000 or" --

22 MS. DIPIRO: He said, "I" --

23 THE COURT: -- "I spent it on materials."

24 MS. DIPIRO: He said, "I started buying materials and 25 I paid for the architect," and we noticed that the check -- the

1 architect wasn't done until November and there was no materials
2 purchased in October and that's on the use of funds
3 spreadsheet.

4 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Anything else that --
5 any other misrepresentations that you said he made?

6 MS. DIPIRO: I'm just adding to what my husband said
7 about the jobs lined up in the future.

8 THE COURT: Yeah.

9 MS. DIPIRO: When we met with him he told us that 10 there were jobs -- he had multiple jobs lined up in the future
11 and that we had to sign the contract and commit with the funds
12 so we can get into his schedule. And it was clear by testimony
13 of Chris LeBlanc that in the -- certainly in the year of 2015
14 that there were no projects besides shoveling that was going on 15 with him and Anketell.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. DIPIRO: And Ground Up Construction.

18 THE COURT: All right. Okay. So that's sort of your 19 (a) (2) (A) -- 523(a) (2) (A) theory, right?

20 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

21 THE COURT: That's everything there. And --

22 MS. DIPIRO: One other thing I wanted to mention is 23 he -- as far as the deposit scheme given in February, I don't
24 think I realized this until after the trial, but his building
25 permit wasn't taken out until March and he claims that he

1 started demolition in February. So I just wanted to note that
2 the bill didn't permit -- that was -- admitted as an exhibit
3 wasn't taken out until March.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. DIPIRO: And I believe we testified that
6 construction began in March. So those deposits that were given
7 in February, they were -- they could -- it was for demolition.
8 It hadn't started until a much -- a month later.

9 THE COURT: Okay. I think you say that he also 10 violated 523(a)(4), which is for fraud or defalcation while 11 acting in a fiduciary capacity, embezzlement or larceny. Do
12 you say that? Is that one of your theories?

13 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

14 THE COURT: All right. Tell me what evidence there
15 is of that now that you've had the trial.

16 MS. DIPIRO: Well, he admitted in trial that he took 17 funds from deposit and deposited into his and his wife's joint 18 bank accounts. He also --

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry. So he took your deposits,
20 money that you gave him --

21 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

22 THE COURT: -- for your project and he deposited it
23 in his personal accounts?

24 MS. DIPIRO: Yes, he stated it was joint with his 25 wife.

1 THE COURT: Why was that wrong?

2 MS. DIPIRO: Because the funds were supposed to be
3 used for our project.

4 THE COURT: Is he entitled to be paid for his work,
5 though?

6 MS. DIPIRO: He shows that he has payroll. There's a
7 lot of withdraws that just say Damian Anketell with no payroll.
8 He actually has a payroll service that has his name on it. I
9 mean, he testified that he does use a payroll service. I'm not 10 sure why he would have paid himself a personal check -- a 11 company check. He also stated that his wife has loans -- that 12 his wife had given him loans and his -- and then he testified
13 that he does not have such loan documents, so we're unsure why
14 those monies were given to her.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So the way that fits 16 into (a) (4) is you say that he had possession of your money and 17 he either embezzled it or stole it, larceny, by diverting those 18 funds to himself and not to your project.

19 MS. DIPIRO: Yes.

20 THE COURT: And where is it -- is there some writing
21 or something you're relying on to say that the money that you
22 gave him could only be used for your project? Why do you say
23 that? Money is fungible.

24 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah. Well, I certainly don't think it
25 should go to his personal accounts. I would think if it went

1 to business's --

2 THE COURT: Well, that's your opinion, but I'm asking 3 what --

4 MS. DIPIRO: What -- well, he has --

5 THE COURT: This is a court of law, so I'm trying to 6 figure out --

7 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah, okay.

8 THE COURT: -- what basis you have to say that the 9 money he gave you could only be used for that -- for your 10 project. What legal reason do you have? Did he say somewhere
11 in writing --

12 MS. DIPIRO: Oh, in the contract it states --

13 THE COURT: Where?

14 MS. DIPIRO: -- what the deposits are being used for.
15 It was --

16 THE COURT: Does it say that?

17 MS. DIPIRO: -- Exhibit A.

18 THE COURT: Where? What exhibit is the contract?

19 MS. DIPIRO: It's Exhibit A.

20 THE COURT: All right. And where in the contract
21 does it says he promises to use --

22 MS. DIPIRO: Oh, it doesn't say it promises, but it
23 says --

24 THE COURT: Well, whatever. Words from --

25 MS. DIPIRO: -- what -- where the funds are going to 1 be used.

2 THE COURT: -- which one can infer a promise.

3 MS. DIPIRO: He breaks down each payment into sub-
4 categories, demolition of chimney, $742; dumpster, recycling
5 fees --

6 THE COURT: I see that, but that doesn't -- how does
7 that meet -- why should I find that that means he could only
8 use your deposit to accomplish those tasks? What if he used
9 other money that he had? You didn't really care, did you, if 10 he used other money, but did that work?

11 MS. DIPIRO: It was clear that he didn't have funds
12 after the fact, but in here it just said all work is guaranteed
13 for one year from completion.

14 THE COURT: Well, that's different, too, isn't it?
15 It's different from saying he could only use the money that you
16 gave him for your project.

17 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah, it doesn't say specifically that 18 you have to use my funds for my project.

19 THE COURT: All right. So it wouldn't be in the 20 contract, so then it's that -- did he say it to you?

21 MS. DIPIRO: Did he say it?

22 THE COURT: Did -- and by the way, I'm not asking you
23 now to testify. Was there testimony at trial that he said
24 something like that to you?

25 MS. DIPIRO: Well, he said that the $38,000, that he

1 used the money to buy materials, so --

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. DIPIRO: And it was, in fact, not used to buy
4 materials and it wasn't used at that time for the architect, so
5 where did the money go? It was disbursed elsewhere.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MS. DIPIRO: So he did tell us that some of the 8 materials were purchased with our money.

9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, your time is 10 up --

11 MS. DIPIRO: Okay.

12 THE COURT: -- you know, here. I'm going to give you
13 a chance to respond --

14 MS. DIPIRO: Sure.

15 THE COURT: -- you know, to what he says, okay?

16 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. REGAN: In the evidence at trial, first of all,
19 did not include any testimony or documents concerning condition
20 of Mr. Anketell, financial condition or otherwise, prior to at 21 the time of the formation of the contract. Specifically,
22 there's no written statement of financial condition.
23 Therefore, there is no evidence upon which to base any claim of 24 misrepresentation concerning the condition of the company.

25 THE COURT: Well, sure there is. They said it.

1 That's evidence.

2 MR. REGAN: There's no testimony, I'd respectfully
3 submit, Your Honor --

4 THE COURT: Yeah.

5 MR. REGAN: -- to the effect that Damian said the 6 financial condition of the company is vexed (phonetic). He did
7 make statements, which he testified to at trial as well,
8 concerning the volume of business he had done in the last
9 period of time and the number of jobs he had on the books.

10 THE COURT: I see. Yes. You're right about that.

11 MR. REGAN: He said -- but the financial statement,
12 spreadsheet, balance sheet of the company was never represented
13 in any testimony you heard at trial --

14 THE COURT: I don't think they -- you're right. I
15 don't think they're alleging that either.

16 MR. REGAN: I agree, but just categorically the 17 written statement is one specific category --

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

19 MR. REGAN: -- as you know, under the statute.

20 THE COURT: Yeah.

21 MR. REGAN: And that's simply excluded here because 22 there was none such presented.

23 Secondly, Mr. Anketell testified at trial credibly
24 concerning the amount of business he had done in the past year
25 or so.

1 THE COURT: Yeah.

2 MR. REGAN: And the number of jobs he had on the 3 boards. First, I suggest the testimony is credible; secondly,
4 this court knows in each one of these alleged 5 misrepresentations there's certain elements that have to be 6 proven to show an actual misrepresentation, the first one of 7 which is that it is false. There must be evidence the 8 statement was untrue.

9 THE COURT: Um-hum.

10 MR. REGAN: The only evidence presented at trial was 11 the reference in Mr. Smith's note to the effect that a then 12 departed employee had said he had only worked in some smaller
13 jobs, not some bigger jobs. It doesn't falsify Mr. Anketell's
14 statement to the effect that he'd done two and a half million-
15 dollars' worth of work in the past year or so, nor does it
16 falsify his claim that there are whatever jobs waiting to go.

17 Therefore, at that point I would say that that 18 alone -- that the allegations of misrepresentations on those 19 two points fails. There's no showing of his falsehood.

20 THE COURT: So didn't Mr. LeBlanc testify that he --

21 MR. REGAN: He did not. Mr. LeBlanc was not -- had 22 no business with -- you'll -- if you -- what I recall his 23 testimony, Your Honor, is that --

24 THE COURT: Yeah.

25 MR. REGAN: -- this is the first and only job he and

1 Mr. Anketell had ever done together.

2 THE COURT: I do remember that.

3 MR. REGAN: And so he certainly is not -- so he did
4 not make -- he did not offer any testimony concerning history
5 of business and revenues, nor the number of jobs on the boards
6 of Mr. Anketell.

7 THE COURT: All right. The record is what it is. I
8 don't recall one way or the other, but --

9 MR. REGAN: I think that's --

10 THE COURT: -- remind me then. So you say that 11 Mr. Smith testified that a former employee told him that 12 Mr. Anketell hadn't done --

13 MR. REGAN: That's the only thing I recall in the 14 evidence that would even address this point. And this was a 15 man who was a framer involved early on in the estimating of the 16 job.

17 THE COURT: What's that guy's name? Do you remember?

18 MR. REGAN: Do you know?

19 Kenny LaFrancois (phonetic) and he left
20 Mr. Anketell's employ before this job was actively underway,
21 plus this job was underway. And again, you may recall that 22 Mr. Smith offered his notes that he kept on his computer and 23 they included the reference to Kenny having said, "I've only 24 done small jobs."

25 THE COURT: I remember.

1 MR. REGAN: But again, logically that simply doesn't
2 falsify the statements that Mr. Anketell made and he's not
3 backing off on any of those statements. Mr. Smith said he said
4 them; he told the Court he said them during his testimony as 5 well. That testimony is unrebutted at this point, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Um-hum, um-hum.

7 MR. REGAN: With respect to the question of 8 background checks, again you heard Mr. Anketell's testimony on 9 that matter that the company who's giving him referrals,
10 background checks and he does background checks of his own.
11 The plaintiffs did not offer any evidence to falsify it. They 12 only said that LeBlanc is not aware of it. That doesn't 13 falsify the testimony.

14 And more importantly, as you go out doing the 15 plaintiff's closing, one of the essential elements in a fraud
16 claim is there must be reliance. First, the statement has to 17 be false and I suggest this has not been -- this statement has 18 not been falsified. And among other elements the plaintiffs 19 must have relied upon it to the peculiar detriment and they 20 told you that there was no bad outcome from an unscreened
21 employee.

22 THE COURT: Well, what they say is that they hired
23 him on the basis of that false statement. I know you contest
24 that it's false, but they say it's false and there's evidence
25 that it's false that Mr. LeBlanc or somebody said, no, they

1 don't do that and Home Away doesn't do it. And so they say
2 that that wasn't true. And then they say, yeah, no, nothing
3 specifically happened as a result of not doing background
4 checks, but it made us feel comfortable hiring them and it
5 wasn't true, so we hired them and we got burned. That's what 6 they're saying.

7 MR. REGAN: I understand, Your Honor, and I would
8 simply suggest that that is a bit too attenuate when you look
9 at the logical import of a claim, I do background checks; no,
10 you didn't do background checks.

11 What logically flows from that sort of 12 misrepresentation? A bad guy does something wrong in your 13 house, does something wrong to your family. If you have an 14 admission that didn't happen, if this is all part of the reason
15 to enter into the contract, I suggest that's, number one,
16 hasn't been falsified and, number two, it's a bit remote for 17 that particular representation and the elements that are 18 required to prove it as a misrepresentation.

19 They maintain that the statement of the job is moving
20 more quickly is false. That hasn't been falsified. That is 21 Mr. Anketell saying, it looks to me like the job is moving more
22 quickly. Another one of the elements, of course, in a
23 misrepresentation claim is that the statement had to be false
24 and that the person making the statement knew it was false and 25 intended a detrimental alliance. Mr. Anketell testified and

1 actually Ms. DiPiro also testified that when Lance came in and 2 started doing his framing things moved along beautifully.
3 Everybody thought it was going faster. And Mr. Anketell came 4 along and said, "Yeah, I think it's going faster, too. I think
5 we're going to be able to beat that ten-week mark." That 6 statement hasn't been falsified, Your Honor.

7 I'd also like to point out that all of the statements
8 we're dealing with here was any claim of loss has to be 9 analyzed before and after the contract was entered. The 10 statements concerning the volume of business, the number of 11 jobs on the boards, and doing background checks or not appear
12 in the testimony to be pre-contracts. And if they are false
13 and if they induced the contract arguably they're actionable.
14 For the reasons I've suggested, I don't think any of those have 15 been falsified.

16 Once you are into the contract, the contract spells
17 out certain payments at certain points. All of the contract --
18 all of the payments that you've seen referred to in this action
19 are payments on the contract. There are no special
20 assessments. There are no forward a little bit more here for 21 this event.

22 I would point out particularly with respect to the 23 demolition payment. Chris LeBlanc testified that the 24 demolition was completed early February -- by the end of 25 February, interior demolition. There is a -- there's an

1 adjective that we need to clarify what plaintiff is saying
2 about the start of demolition. Exterior demolition was started
3 with Lance entering the picture to do the framing. The 4 interior demolition was done prior to that. The contract says
5 with the beginning of demolition the payment is due.

6           When I -- I believe, if I remember the testimony
7 correctly, when I asked Ms. DiPiro the question about when 8 interior demolition began, I recall that she did not recall.
9 She did not have that information in her head. Mr. LeBlanc did
10 and it was his testimony that demolition was a February job
11 completely consistent with the request for the demolition
12 payment.

13           Further point on a couple of these alleged 14 misrepresentations, particularly the demolition and the job is 15 moving faster. As a general rule a misrepresentation in order
16 to be actionable has to be a statement of present fact, not 17 just a prediction, "I think this is going to happen in the 18 future." The demolition payment was accompanied by a 19 statement, "We're going to start demolition next week. We're 20 going to save you pay." They paid in part, not entirely.
21 Lance does a good job on framing. He says, "This is going 22 well." And by the way, that's just a question of opinion as 23 well, which is also not actionable as a misrepresentation.
24 "This is going well. I think we'll be done in eight weeks 25 instead of ten." Forward-looking.

1           The only thing it's a statement of whether the person
2 believed that at that time or not. It's not something that can
3 be verified or falsified as a present fact other than the state
4 of mind that the person who's making the statement. And you've 5 heard Mr. Anketell testify -- I suggest credibly -- that that 6 was exactly what he observed and exactly what he believed and 7 what he communicated.

8           You also heard his testimony to the effect that --
9 well, excuse me. Mist -- just a moment ago in the closing
10 Ms. DiPiro suggested that there was a conversation in which -- 11 in October where they asked for the deposit back. I will 12 submit for the Court's -- your own memory and notes, my memory
13 of the testimony was that Mr. Smith admitted he never did 14 request the deposit back. He never did ask to get out of the 15 contract. He started to have some cold feet, starting to 16 wonder what they should do, but he testified, "I never said
17 give me back my money, I never said let's cancel this 18 contract."

19           Once you enter into contract, all the payments and 20 all of the events that you've heard testimony of flowed
21 naturally as part of that contract. And although it's not 22 directly a point here, if you look at the performance under 23 that contract it was the plaintiffs who failed to perform, who 24 failed to make payments due when due.

25           Just going back to the very beginning of your

1 questions to the plaintiffs, Your Honor, on the matter of 2 segregation of funds it certainly would appear in the evidence
3 that the funds were not segregated, held in escrow for this job
4 alone. Also, there was absolutely no evidence to the effect
5 that there was a request, a discussion and certainly not any 6 agreement to the effect that the funds would be so segregated.

7 Absent such an agreement, there was no obligation on 8 the part of Mr. Anketell to segregate them. It was his 9 obligation to perform. So I'll keep you subject to liability
10 on the contract if he failed.

11 THE COURT: Wouldn't there be an equitable trust of 12 some sort that would arise where a person hands someone 13 thousands of dollars for this project, a constructive trust, an 14 equitable trust of some -- of some nature?

15 MR. REGAN: I don't believe that's the case, Your 16 Honor. An equitable trust is a remedy super-imposed after 17 something goes wrong. At the time the contract is entered into 18 it would not be my understanding of the law of contract law
19 that that's sort of a trust arises. The obligations and the 20 liability to perform are certainly there without restraint, but 21 the obligation, as you pointed out and I think I've argued
22 prior to that prior in this case, money is fungible. This 23 equitable trust -- it can be done. The contract is who saying
24 they're going to freeze this. This is your bucket of money.
25 This is the escrow. It goes with this job. There was none

1 such. None such asked for nor agreed to in this case. The
2 obligations was brought him -- Mr. Anketell to the point he's 3 at now with all the attendant difficulties, but the obligation
4 to segregate, I submit, is not there.

5 Also, on the question of the willful and malicious
6 injury which was alleged, I would submit you've heard pretty
7 much no evidence at all to support that claim. There was no
8 evidence of physical, mental and emotional injury other than 9 the stress that goes with any home rehab job and certainly the 10 stress that goes with the job that goes awry, but there's no --
11 you don't hear evidence of any symptoms, you don't hear
12 evidence of any diagnosis by any healthcare provider, you
13 didn't hear any evidence of any treatment or consequences. So 14 they failed to prove the existence of such an injury and they 15 certainly did not present any evidence that would warrant a
16 finding of malice on the part of Mr. Anketell. His testimony, 17 I would suggest, was quite clear. He felt terrible. The 18 affairs got to this state and he was in the process of trying 19 to find additional capital to carry this through when he was 20 served with a civil action. So he -- again, there is a 21 complete failure of proof here on the question of willful and 22 malicious injury.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. REGAN: And I believe that that is -- probably 25 covers my points, Your Honor. The Court has the evidence.

1 This is what we believe it has shown. We respectfully refer
2 you to our request for findings and rulings. Thank you, Your 3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, counsel.

5 Any rebuttal?

6 MR. SMITH: If it's okay, I may speak very quickly
7 and then my wife will finish up, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Five minutes.

9 MR. SMITH: Okay.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. SMITH: Thank you. I'm just going to speak on 12 the 523(a)(2) which is the false pretenses, false --
13 misrepresentations and actual fraud. And I think that can be 14 got to very easily. We entered this contract because we were 15 lied to, simply lied to. Witnesses that came forth were lied
16 to as well. Chris LeBlanc explained how he was lied to. Paul
17 Lance had bad checks written to him. Myself and Theresa 18 explained we were lied to.

19 The evidence here is, like I said, it seems --

20 THE COURT: Well, how does the fact that even if it's 21 true --

22 MR. SMITH: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: -- even if it was established that the 24 debtor made false statements to others, how does that --

25 MR. SMITH: I think that goes towards his

1 credibility, Your Honor, and the fact that every witness we
2 called forth told the same story, systematic lying, bad checks
3 written out. And I think it comes to who do you believe, who 4 is the credible story.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. SMITH: And I think we have the credible story.
7 We have witnesses that came forth with nothing to gain, just to 8 tell the truth and I think they came forward. They told the 9 truth. Chris LeBlanc explained in detail how he was lied to.
10 Paul Lance lost about $9,000. He was written a bad check. Is 11 that a lie? Technically, no, but it's thievery basically is 12 what it is. He's out the money; we're out the money. We've 13 presented all this evidence and that's the credibility factor
14 that we're putting forth. These misrepresentations made to 15 us forced us into this contract which hurt us. These were the 16 lies told to us that made us -- that coerced us into entering 17 into this contract. Mr. Anketell had reason to do that. He 18 needed money quick and he got it. He put his lure out, he 19 lured us in, and that's what happened. He got his money. The 20 money was spent immediately; $38,000 we put in there was gone
21 before any materials were bought. Where did it go? The one
22 piece of evidence that would have really made this I think a
23 strong case for non-dischargeability was receipts. We spent 24 them all on your job.

25 No, I guess the money is fungible. There's an

1 expectation that our money is going to be used for our job.
2 Whether the law states that or not, I don't know. That's the 3 expectation and that's any business expectation, in my opinion,
4 for what that's worth.

5 And that $38,000 was not spent -- was gone the first
6 two weeks, I believe, three weeks with no materials being 7 purchased. And I look at that and I say, where did it go?
8 Where are the receipts that would show that? If there are 9 receipts presented that show, oh, you bought this, this and 10 that, that would be a different story, there would be I think 11 credible cause for non-dischargeability because it shows he 12 went and --

13 THE COURT: Did you testify that you called
14 Mr. Anketell and said, "I want to cancel the contract" --

15 MR. SMITH: I sure did. I --

16 THE COURT: -- "same with the $38,000" --

17 MR. SMITH: I sure did say that, so I wanted to 18 make --

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

20 MR. SMITH: I did testify that during the trial I did
21 call him. I remember exactly where I said, "We're not 22 comfortable. We want our money back" and Mr. Anketell said, 23 "Well, I've already bought materials and bring (phonetic) the 24 contract." So that did happen. I did ask for our money back.
25 So that being said, I'll turn it over to my wife. Thank you,

1 Your Honor.

2 MS. DIPIRO: Regarding the financial condition, I
3 think the first thing that he mentioned, before signing the 4 contract when we gave our -- him the $38,000 to deposit if you
5 look at the bank statement submitted as an exhibit the balance
6 in the Ground Up Construction account was $960, so that speaks
7 to the financial condition of the company.

8 THE COURT: But counsel makes the point he never -- 9 you haven't told me that he -- that Mr. Anketell told you that 10 his company was in a fine financial condition or anything about 11 his financial condition of his company.

12 MS. DIPIRO: He said he did two and a half million
13 dollars' worth of sales and --

14 THE COURT: That's --

15 MS. DIPIRO: Which --

16 THE COURT: You might infer from that --

17 MS. DIPIRO: I inferred. That would be correct. I
18 inferred --

19 THE COURT: We deal in statements here.

20 MS. DIPIRO: Yeah. Okay.

21 THE COURT: You know, so that might have been a fair
22 inference; it might have been an unfair inference. You know, I
23 don't know the answer to that, but first I have to believe that 24 he made the statement and that it was false, so --

25 MS. DIPIRO: Yes. Well, I do -- don't believe his

1 records show that he made two -- anywhere that we've received
2 from him showed two and a half million dollars of income for 3 Castle Hill and those statements, as well as the Ground Up were 4 submitted for -- since we started the project. So all those 5 statements from Ground Up, Castle Hill were in -- were -- are 6 in there -- are in the exhibits.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MS. DIPIRO: And he mentions Chris LeBlanc's
9 testimony regarding the status of his projects. He -- Damian
10 Anketell actually testified that he was a partner and I
11 remember Tim questioning him saying, like, how -- was he -- is 12 your company -- does he have mes -- I don't remember the legal 13 term of it.

14 What's the legal term of partner?

15 A shareholder. And he said, "Oh, yeah, he's a 16 partner." So they testified that he was a big piece of the 17 company. Well, why wouldn't he know he had projects going on 18 in 2015?

19 As far as background checks, I think we've really
20 proved that was false and that he told me in March right before
21 the project end that he -- Chris LeBlanc was out doing
22 background checks on the subs coming in. And Chris testified
23 that that was not happening. And that's just clear in my mind
24 that it was an outright lie.

25 And then his comment on the -- about it moving along

1 quickly and that Damian should -- you know, thought it did
2 because the framer was moving along quickly, I wasn't told or 3 Tim wasn't told that he was not receiving funds. And if you
4 remember, Chris -- Paul Lance testified that the reason why he 5 came back after that check bounced was because he didn't want
6 to be sitting in this courtroom where Damian is today because 7 he was doing what was right. And he actually told me after the 8 project ended in April that he came back because he didn't want
9 to leave us with an open move and the scary thing is that 10 Damian Anketell if he was an honest man we would have been left
11 with a hole in our home.

12           So that's -- so that testimony about he as an owner
13 when I gave that $11,000 balance to him, he had a Ground Up
14 Construction balance of $13,000 that's in evidence -- a 15 negative $13,000 in Ground Up, zero in Castle Hill. So if he 16 didn't -- if he thought his project was going to happen in six 17 to eight weeks -- eight to ten -- eight weeks instead of ten,
18 he is in complete uncontrol of his business because he had a
19 13 -- negative $13,000 balance when he received my $11,000. It 20 was clear that couldn't happen. And that exhibit is in the 21 bank statements if you look at the date that I made that 22 payment.

23           THE COURT: Um-hum.

24           MS. DIPIRO: And regarding the volume of this 25 business he says there is no special assessments. It was I

1 guess in hindsight we should have noticed that we were like
2 adding little things and he was just blanketly not saying, oh,
3 that will be $5,000; I wanted to add some trim and it sort of 4 got washed under the boards. And I think it was because his 5 goal was not to finish the project. It was just, how do I get 6 these funds in as fast as possible.

7 So the volume of the business and having no special
8 assessments doesn't make any -- doesn't help.

9 THE COURT: Um-hum.

10 MS. DIPIRO: And I just want to make a statement that 11 Chris LeBlanc did not state that the demo was completed in 12 February.

13 And I do want to just notice that an exhibit entered 14 of the building permit. The building permit was taken out by 15 Damian Anketell on March 6th. And I did not state that I did 16 not know. I said it was done in March. The demo started in 17 March. I didn't know the exact date. So I know Chris LeBlanc
18 did not say February because the demo did not start in 19 February. And I only gave a partial payment of that demo
20 payment and that's the reason why I didn't give the second
21 payment because it never started. And then I think -- and then 22 I gave the second payment, the $6200, once it started which 23 is -- was in March.

24 And just regarding -- I don't know if -- Paul Lance
25 and his framing, I know he said -- his attorney -- Attorney

1 Regan said that, you know, Lance said the job was going along
2 great and everyone thought it was going along great, we weren't
3 in his shoes where we were not receiving payment on work being 4 done. So as an owner of a company he clearly knew that he was 5 bouncing checks to people and he clearly knew that his balance
6 was negative $13,000. Paul Lance's work was good because he's 7 a good framer and he unfortunately got money stolen from him as 8 well because he's owed money.

9 But he -- Paul Lance chose to not tell us as 10 homeowners and, you know, that was his decision because he was 11 working with Damian and -- and Chris LeBlanc and we didn't know
12 that situation until April 3rd, but it's clear to me that
13 Damian knew his financial status when he made those statements
14 to me.

15 THE COURT: And you say he had a duty to tell you his 16 financial status?

17 MS. DIPIRO: No, he didn't have the duty to tell me,
18 but he lied when he said that the job is going to be completed
19 in eight weeks instead of ten and he had a negative $13,000
20 balance in his account. He was getting $11,000 from me. How 21 could it possibly be completed?

22 THE COURT: I see. So you're saying that --

23 MS. DIPIRO: You know, yeah, yeah.

24 THE COURT: So the falsehood here was in that he 25 couldn't perform.

1 MS. DIPIRO: He couldn't perform because he had no
2 money. He had no money. He was in the negative balance and he
3 was desperate. Desperate. And we do refer to a Paul on -- 4 after March 25th where he called us in the middle of the 5 night -- we were in bed -- and asked for more money and we're 6 like "We paid you everything we had to" and he said, "I -- this 7 job is not going to be affected by my liquidity." He said he 8 had a liquidity issue. And this was after all our payments had 9 been made. So he was clearly, clearly concerned about his 10 liquidity.

11 And regarding my husband's request for deposits back,
12 he -- I was unsure. I know that he asked for it back, but I
13 didn't think I asked for it. It was my husband asked for it
14 when he was at work. He called him from his office and asked
15 for the deposits back, so that did, in fact, happen.

16 And as far as the contract, I mean, it's just pretty
17 clear. We made -- we didn't make payments from the contract.
18 It's a really sad excuse for why this project didn't happen as 19 we paid our framing -- we paid our demolition payment early.
20 When we left the job he had $78,000 on hand and that's his -- 21 that's his only defense. He had a building permit, so he's 22 saying he did demolition in February and he didn't take the 23 building permit out until 3/6 -- March 6th. That right there
24 proves to me if you're a legal contractor that you probably 25 want that building permit before you start ripping off

1 somebody's roof because somebody might raise an eyebrow. And 2 also, he --

3 THE COURT: Well, let me just ask you to summarize --

4 MS. DIPIRO: Sure.

5 THE COURT: -- your very last point now.

6 MS. DIPIRO: So that's pretty much it.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MS. DIPIRO: I just went through the fact that he 9 has.

10 And just one last -- regarding the willful and 11 malicious injury, our home was left with no heat, no windows,
12 CO detectors, CO cut off in our living space venting into our 13 home. We had no smoke detectors on the second and third floor, 14 no CO detectors, no windows, and it was in the middle of 15 winter. Our kids and ourselves slept in sleeping bags for a
16 month and so as far as malicious injury I really do feel like
17 he could have considered that condition might be a painful
18 existence of a family, how it was left.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And that was all testified to at 20 trial?

21 MS. DIPIRO: That -- yeah, I said the status -- I
22 showed the pictures of the home with the CO -- I showed 23 pictures of the home and I mentioned all those items.

24 THE COURT: So that was at trial.

25 MS. DIPIRO: Yep.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right. And so that's what you
2 say was the --

3 MS. DIPIRO: Willingful (phonetic) and malicious
4 injury.

5 THE COURT: Willful and malicious injury. But didn't 6 you fire him?

7 MS. DIPIRO: No. We never fired him. He -- the last
8 meeting with -- and I --

9 THE COURT: Chris LeBlanc was there, right?

10 MS. DIPIRO: He was there, yep. And he walked out
11 and said he was going to need -- and I believe Attorney Regan
12 just repeated that is that he was trying to find more capital
13 for our project. That's how he left. And I sent him a text
14 the morning of. The rain was pouring on our roof and I
15 never -- and Tim sent him a text regarding this solution to his 16 problem and he never responded.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

18 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. So I'll take this under 20 advisement.

21 MS. DIPIRO: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Thank you, all.

23 MR. REGAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 MR. SMITH: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay.
